Who We Are

To accomplish your IT project initiatives, does your organization require niche talent, specific applications expertise, or additional resources beyond those you have on staff? Since 1997, Vortex has been delivering value to customers by connecting them with proven enterprise talent. We have a great roster of talent across the breadth of ERP, CRM, Analytics, and IT skills and a proven ability to locate and thoroughly qualify candidates.

We've built our reputation by listening to our customers, by thoroughly vetting each candidate, and by delivering the right resources. Whether your resource need is short term, contract, or full-time, customers trust Vortex to find them technical talent.

What We Do

Vortex Consulting takes the heavy lifting out of your ERP and IT staffing process. We offer flexible staffing approaches to best address your organization's Information Technology resource needs. We offer IT talent for:

- Staff Augmentation Services - Senior-level professionals supporting a wide range of skills and specialties over any length of time. Our professionals are ready to step in and when you need them.
- Contract to Hire Services - A cost-effective and efficient approach to hiring. Assess an associate's performance before transferring them to your organization.
- Full-Time Placement Services - Our services are designed with one goal in mind, to provide full-time candidates who exceed YOUR expectations.

"Vortex is one of the first that I call when I am looking for Oracle assistance. I greatly appreciate their knowledge, network of resources and approach to business. Their model works for me very well."
